

IRISH RENTAL MARKET ANALYSIS

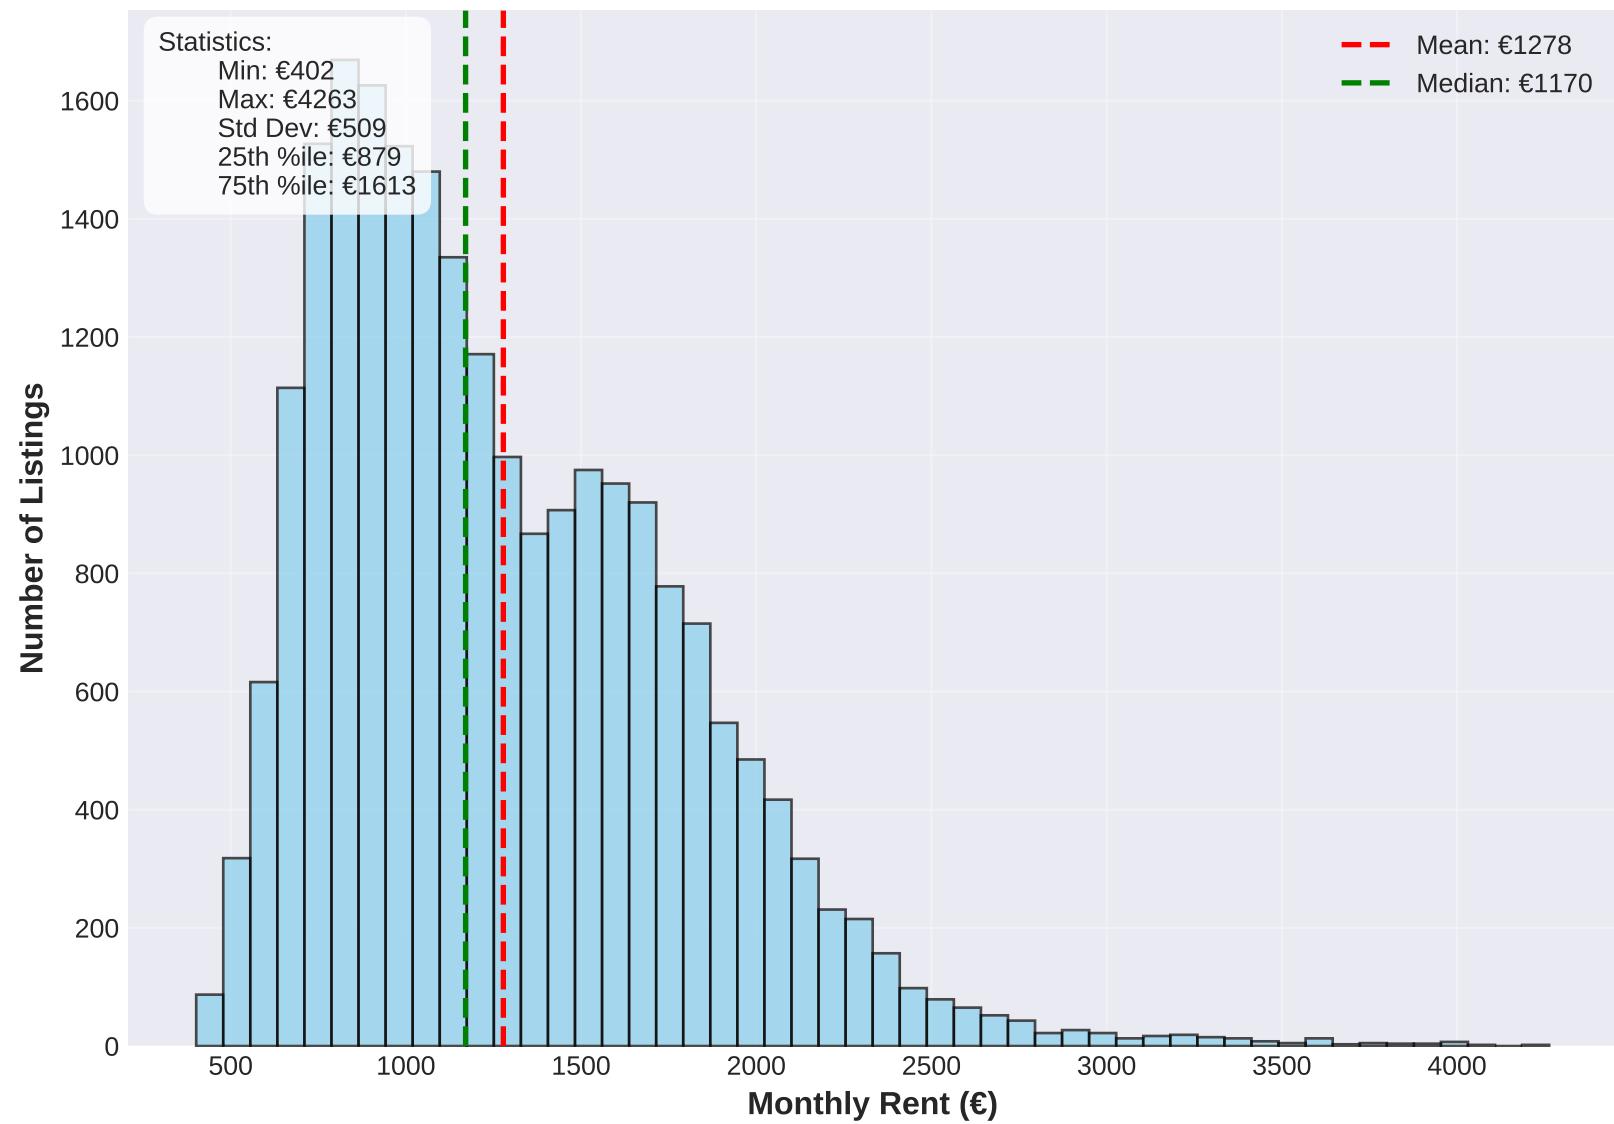

KEY METRICS:
2020 - 2025

Residential Tenancy Data Analysis

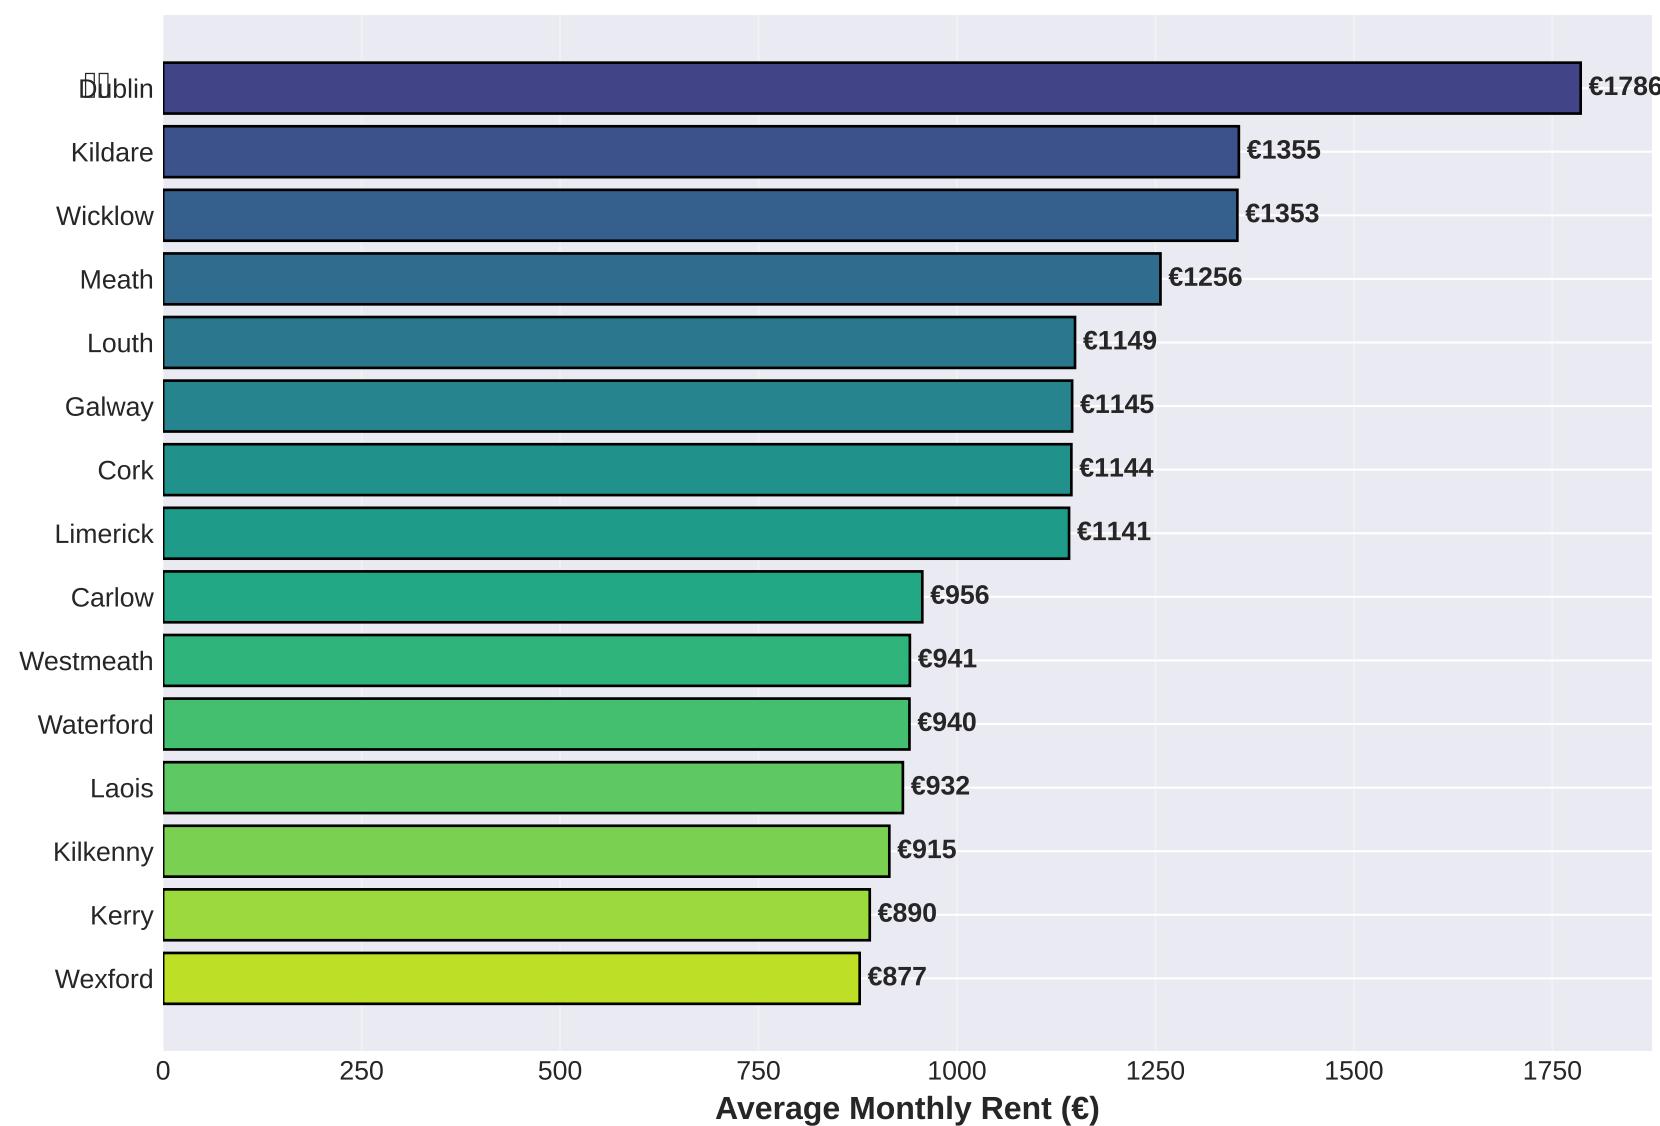

- Average Monthly Rent (EUR): 1278.22
- Dublin Average: €1786
- Non-Dublin Average: €1016
- Dublin Premium: 75.8%
- Total Listings Analyzed: 22,484
- Time Period: 2020 H1 - 2025 H1
- Counties Covered: 26

Generated on 08 February 2025

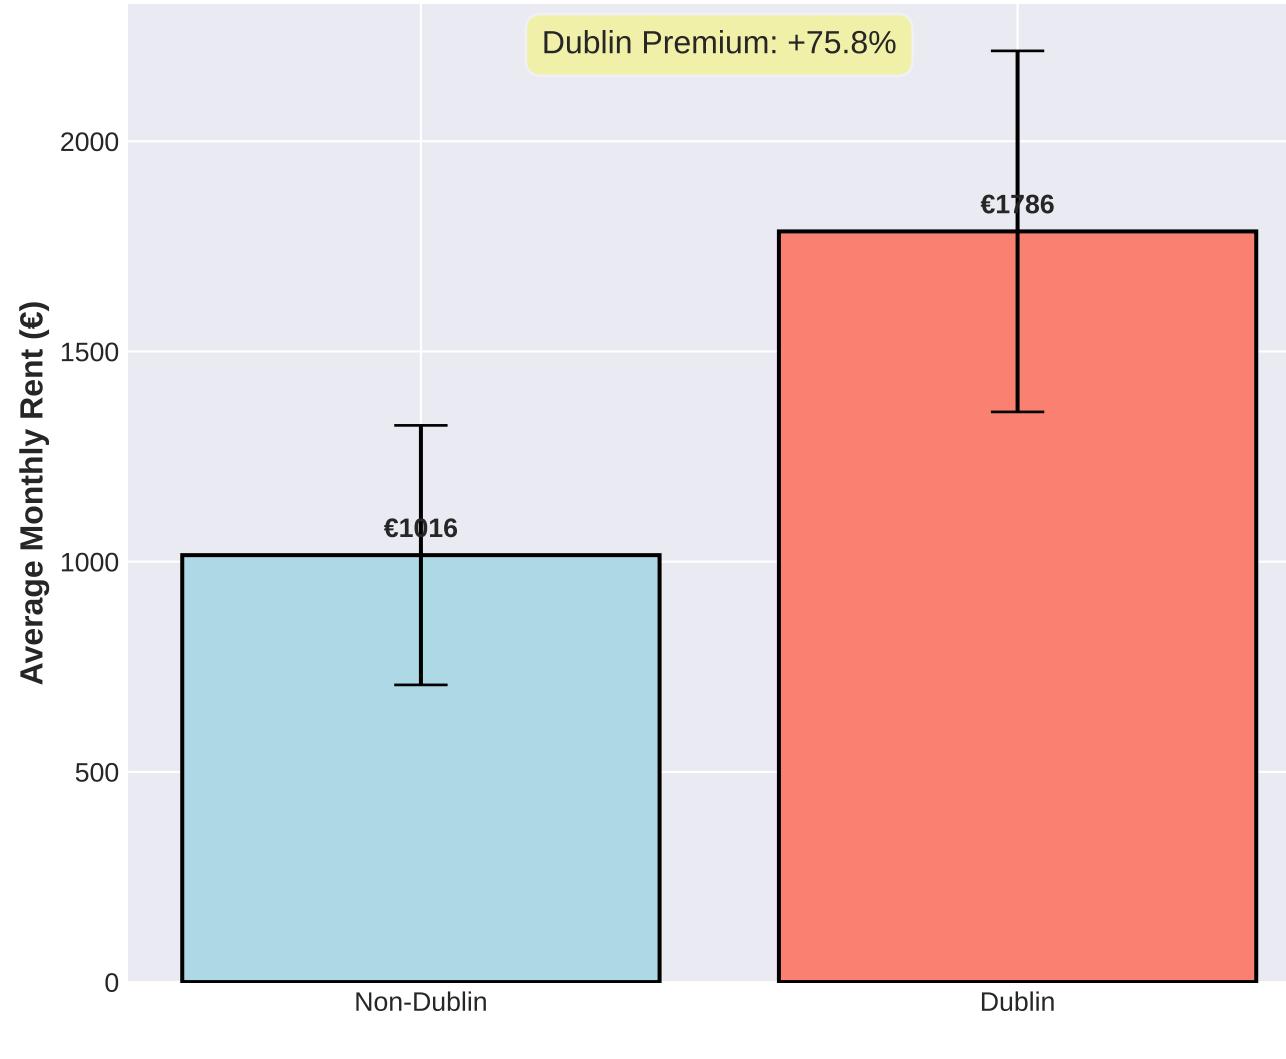

Distribution of Rental Prices Across Ireland

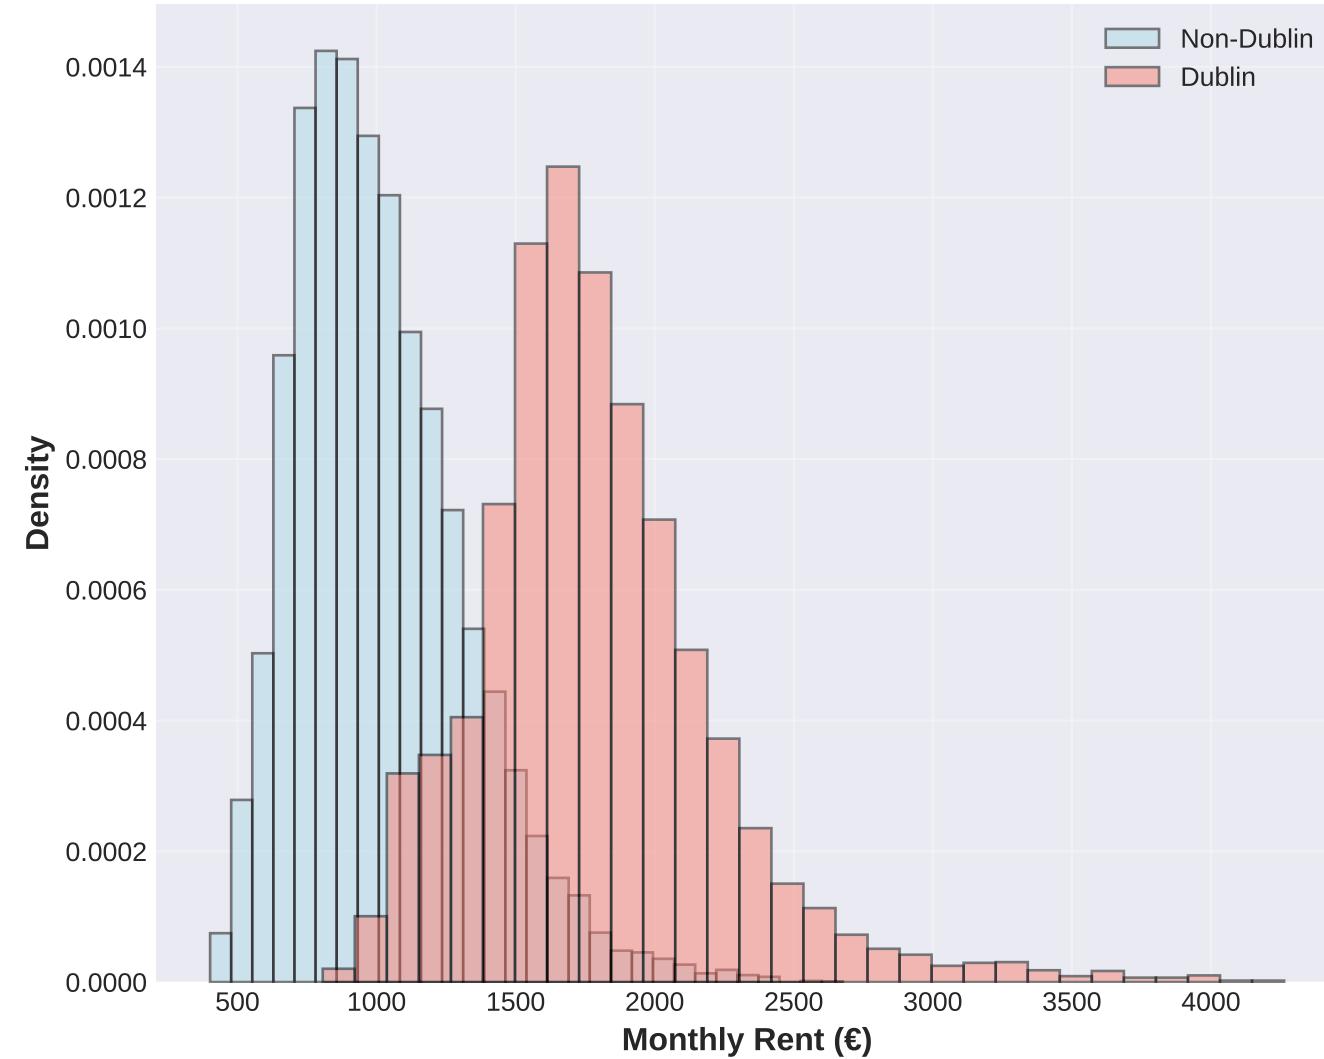

Top 15 Counties by Average Rent Price

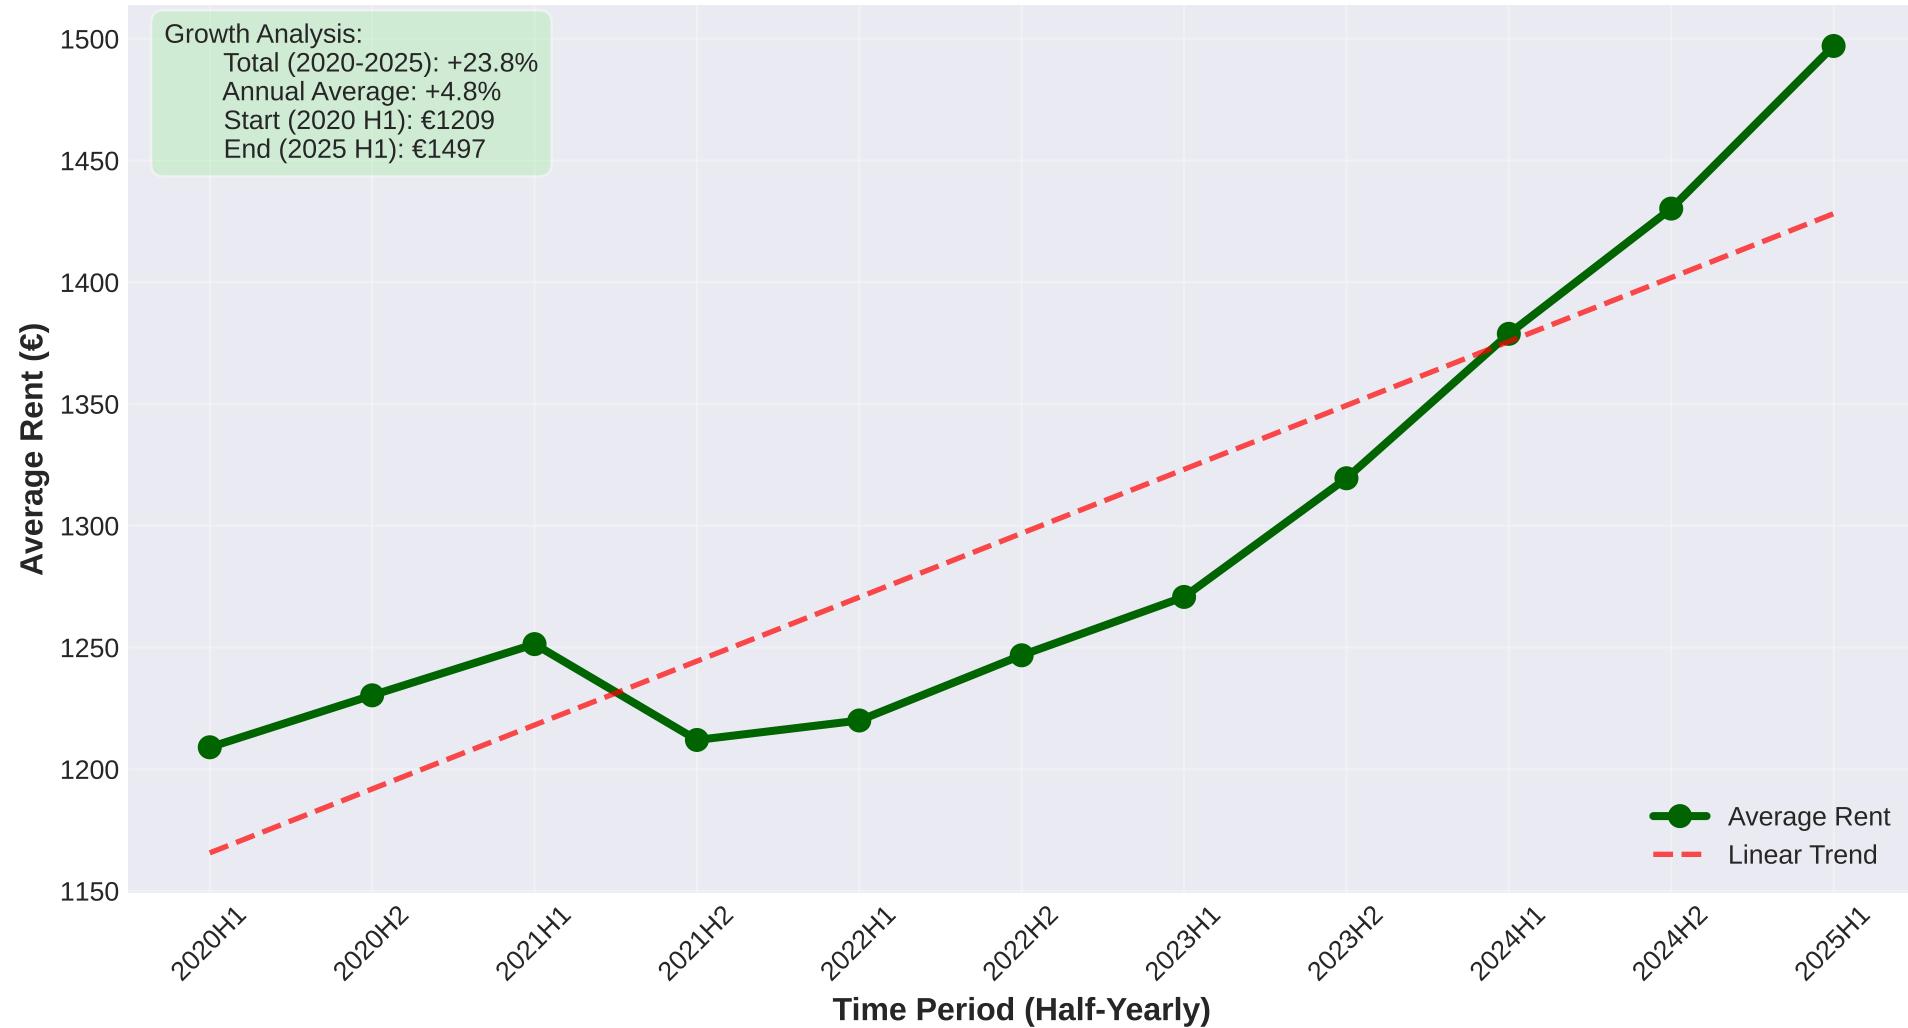

Dublin vs Non-Dublin Rent Comparison

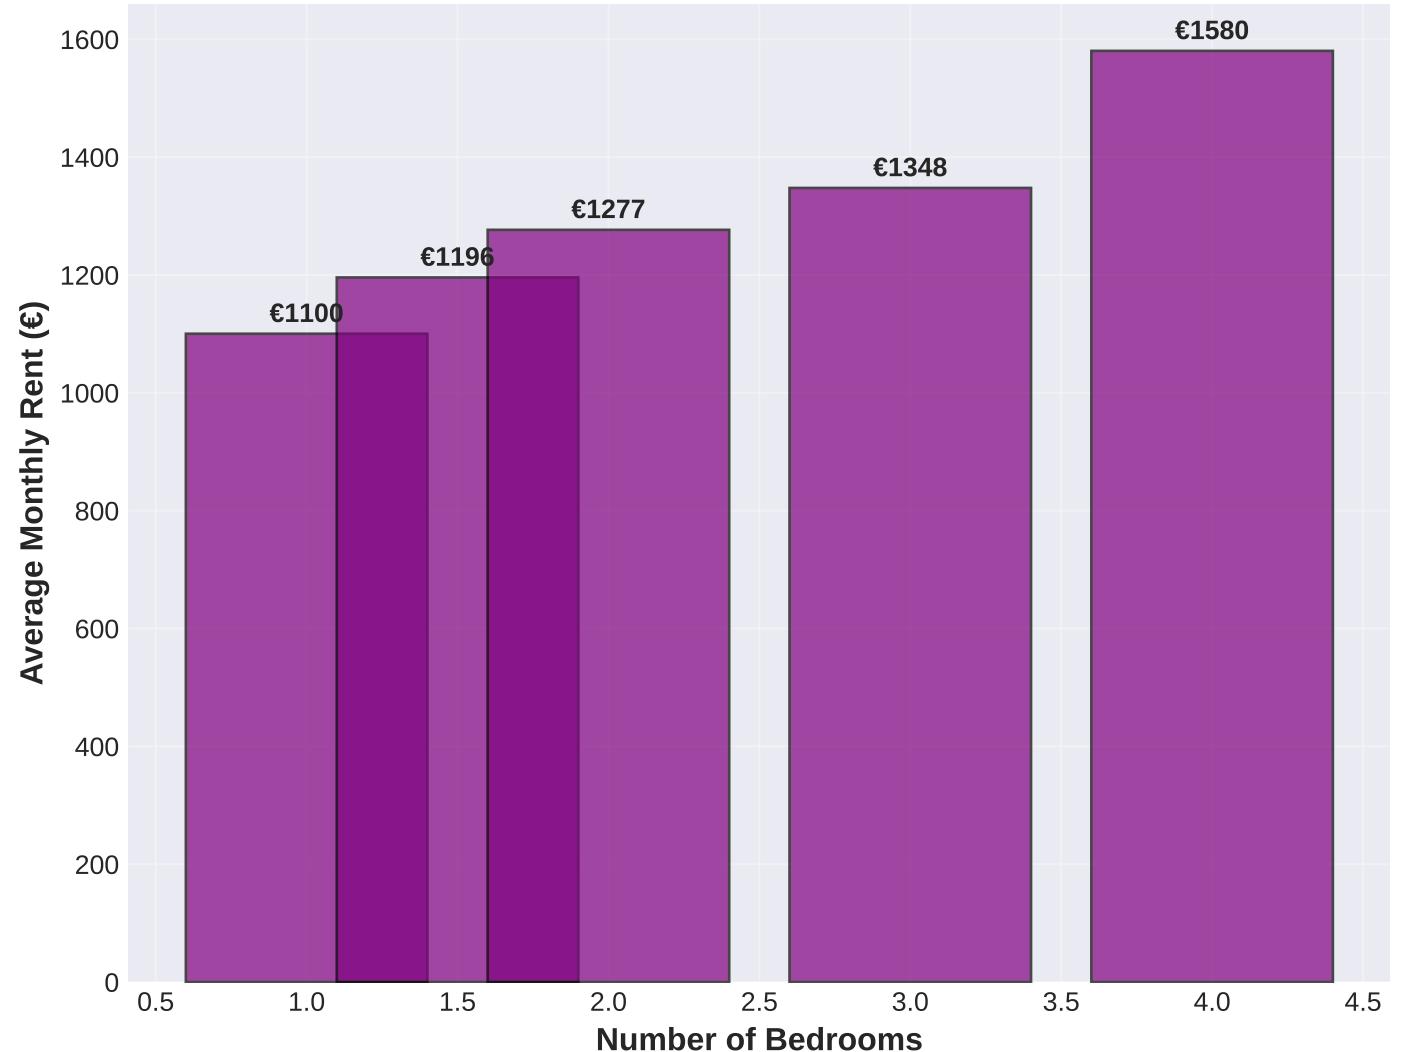

Rent Distribution Comparison

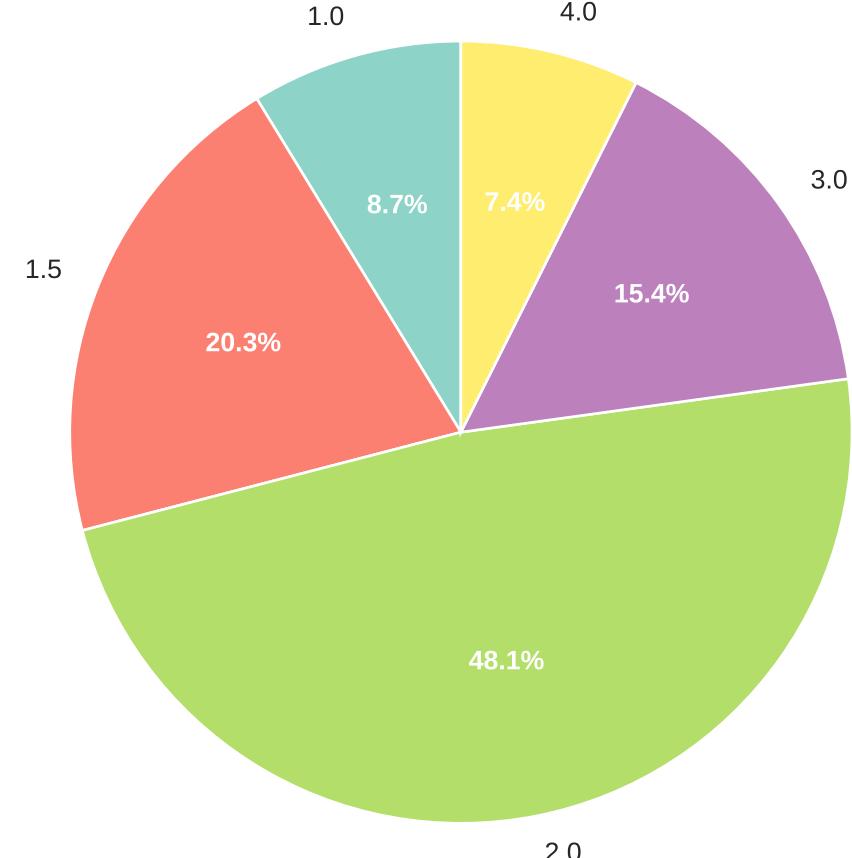

Irish Rental Market Trend 2020-2025

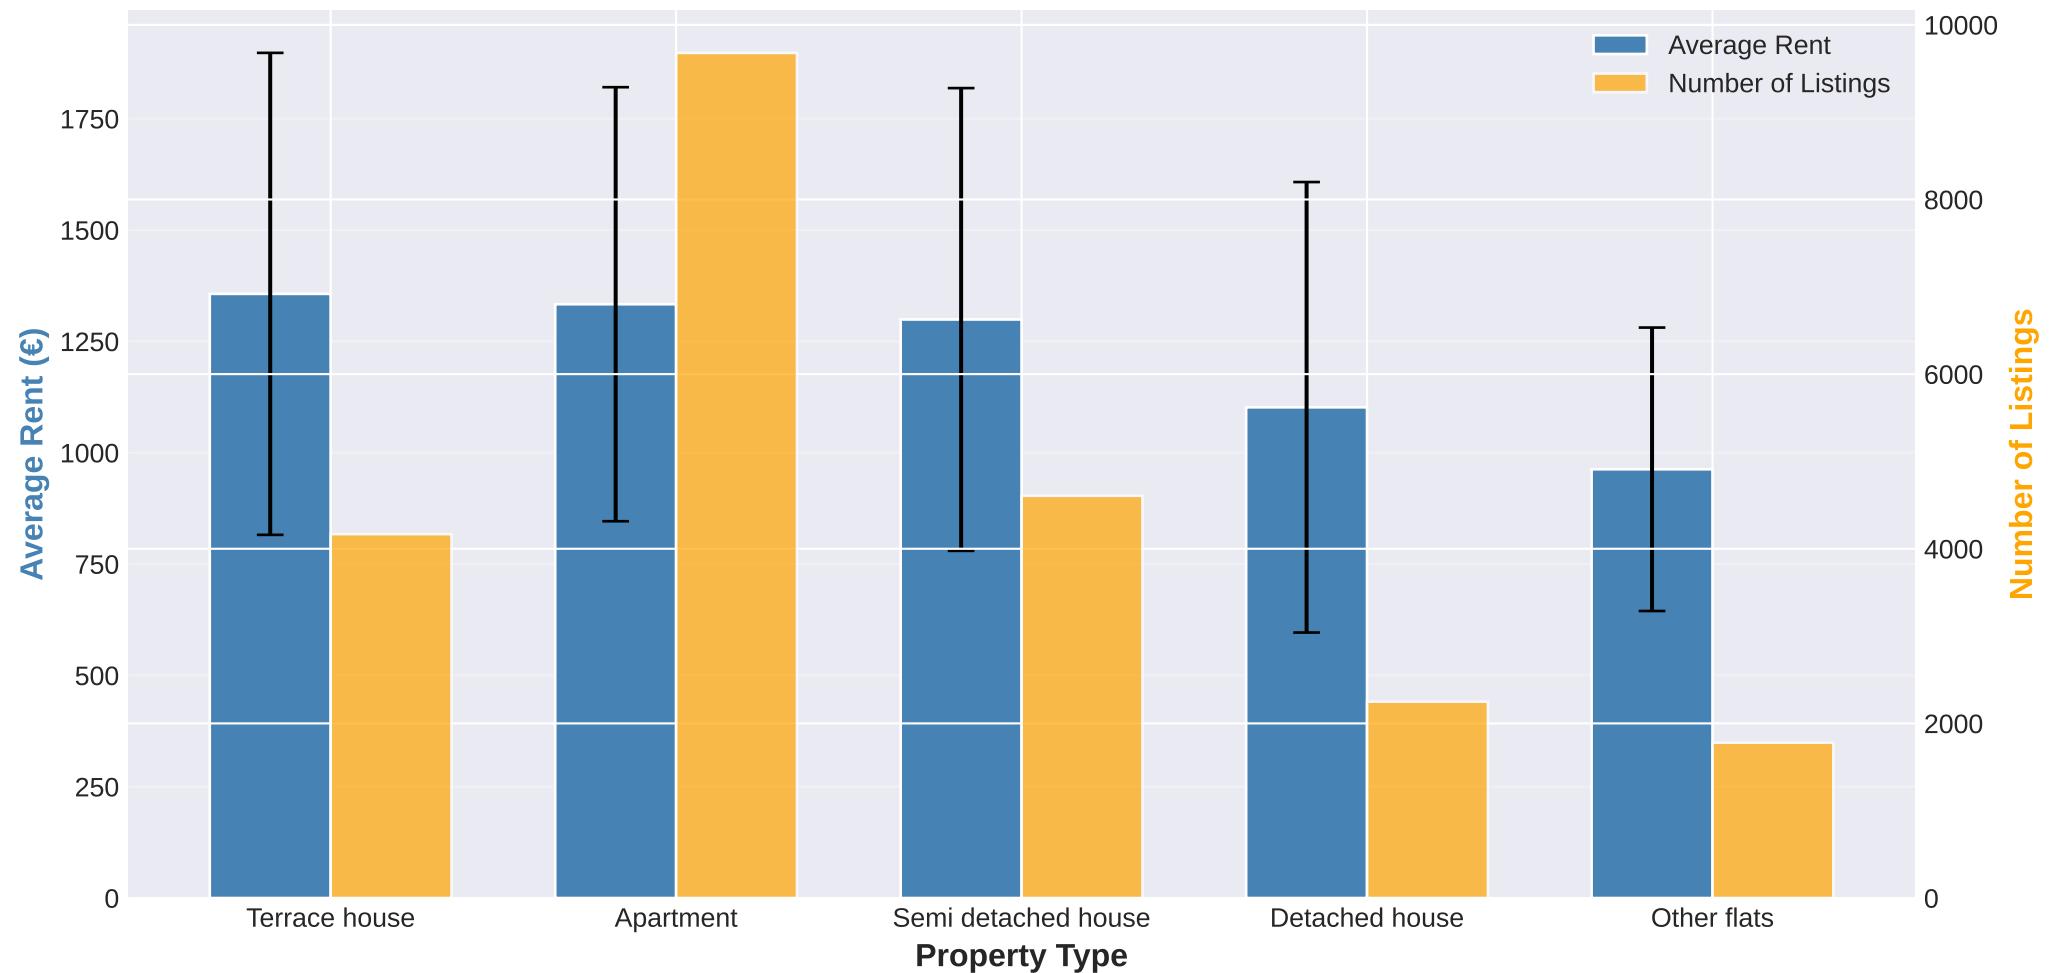

Average Rent by Number of Bedrooms

Distribution of Listings by Bedroom Count

Rent Analysis by Property Type

KEY FINDINGS & RECOMMENDATIONS

MAJOR FINDINGS:

1. DUBLIN DOMINANCE
 - Dublin commands a 76% price premium
 - Dublin average: €1786 vs Non-Dublin: €1016
 - Location explains majority of price variation
2. STEADY MARKET GROWTH
 - 23.8% total growth from 2020-2025
 - Consistent upward trend across all periods
 - No significant seasonal fluctuations detected
3. PROPERTY CHARACTERISTICS
 - Each additional bedroom adds €120 on average
 - Apartments most common property type
 - 2-3 bedroom properties represent optimal market segment
4. REGIONAL DISPARITIES
 - Top 3: Dublin, Wicklow, Kildare
 - Clear urban-rural divide in pricing
 - Provincial differences: Leinster > Munster > Connacht > Ulster

RECOMMENDATIONS:

For Renters:

- Consider adjacent counties (Wicklow, Kildare, Meath) for better value
- Opt for properties outside major city centers
- 2-bedroom apartments offer best price-to-space ratio

For Investors:

- Dublin remains prime investment location despite premium
- Monitor growth in commuter counties
- Consider student accommodation in university cities

For Policymakers:

- Address housing affordability in urban centers
- Encourage development in regional growth centers
- Monitor rent pressure zones effectiveness

DATA QUALITY NOTES:

- Source: Official RTB registration data (high reliability)
- Coverage: Comprehensive national coverage
- Period: 5.5 years of half-yearly data
- Granularity: County and property type detail